Resort Casual Dress Code

NCLTA plans to incorporate the Low Country flair with our social events where we will be embracing the beach lifestyle and casualness throughout the meeting by implementing the casual attitude usually prevalent at coastal destinations. Plan for a dressed down, more casual Annual Convention with content worthy of your participation! Resort Casual will be the dress code throughout the meeting. We hope you will enjoy this more relaxed atmosphere and enjoy networking and mingling with your colleagues at the beach.

If You Plan to Play Golf ...

If attendees would like to play golf, the cart and green fees for our group are as follows:

$99 for the Harbor Course: Designed by Tom Fazio, the Harbor Course is known for its challenging design and beautiful views, and most of all, water. From lagoons and salt marshes to the Intracoastal Waterway, this varied golf course in Charleston, South Carolina will test all aspects of your game. Practice facilities are located across from The Links clubhouse and include a driving range, chipping area and putting green.

$155 for the Links Course: The Links Course was Tom Fazio’s first. Today, it’s newly renovated and still among his favorites - and he’s not the only one. From the rustling palms lining lush, rolling fairways to a finishing hole overlooking the glistening Atlantic Ocean, the Links Course is South Carolina golf at its finest. Practice facilities are located across from the Links Clubhouse and include a driving range, chipping area and putting green. If you are staying on property, you will also get one complimentary bucket of golf balls at the Links Course.
